The Poomsae have to be presented in the same order as they were drawn.

After that (starting not later than 1 minute after the end of the first Poomsae) the athlete has to start with the second form.

In case the score is still tied, the contestant with the highest total points (including the highest and lowest points) wins. If it's still tied the referee will decide on Poomsae to be performed before the final.
